Section 1 - Background

First inhabited by Arawak and later by Carib Indians, the Virgin Islands were settled by the Dutch in 1648 and then annexed by the English in 1672. The islands were part of the British colony of the Leeward Islands from 1872-1960; they were granted autonomy in 1967. The economy is closely tied to the larger and more populous US Virgin Islands to the west; the US dollar is the legal currency.

Section 2 - Anti – Money Laundering / Terrorist Financing

FATF status

The British Virgin Islands is not on the FATF List of Countries that have been identified as having strategic AML deficiencies

Compliance with FATF Recommendations

The last Mutual Evaluation Report relating to the implementation of anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing standards in The British Virgin Islands was undertaken by the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) in 2008. According to that Evaluation, The British Virgin Islands was deemed Compliant for 18 and Largely Compliant for 15 of the FATF 40 + 9 Recommendations. It was Partially Compliant or Non-Compliant for 1 of the 6 Core Recommendations.

Key Findings from latest Mutual Evaluation Follow-up Report (2011):

In response to the MER, the Virgin Islands has amended certain of its anti-money laundering/combating the financing of terrorism (AML/CFT) laws, regulations and guidelines incorporating most of the recommended actions from the MER. The latest revisions include: 6 1) The Anti-money Laundering and Terrorist Financing (Amendment) Code of Practice, 2009 which was enacted in January 2009. 2) The Financing and Money Services Act which was enacted in May 2009 3) The Proceeds of Criminal Conduct (Amendment) Act 2010 which was enacted in February 2010. 4) The Anti-money Laundering (Amendment) Regulations which was signed on April 29, 2010. 5) The Securities and Investment Business Act which was passed on April 12, 2010.

In accordance with the Virgin Islands commitment to effective implementation of the AML/CFT regime the Financial Services Commission (FSC) monitors AML/CFT activities that would have an adverse effect on the reputation of the jurisdiction and takes appropriate action where necessary. Periodic on-site inspections are conducted by each of its regulatory divisions and financial institutions continue to be sensitised to AML/CFT matters through the FSC's Meet the Regulator Forums.

The other agencies involved in combating ML and TF activities continue to strengthen their law enforcement tools and systems in order to ensure the full and effective implementation of the Anti-money Laundering Terrorist Financing Code of Practice (AMLTF COP), the Anti-money Laundering Regulations (AMLR) and the related Proceeds of Criminal Conduct Act (PCCA) and other relevant legislation designed to effectively deal with money laundering (ML) and terrorist financing (TF). The Intergovernmental Committee on AML/CFT discusses and exchanges information on AML/CFT vulnerabilities and determines how best member agencies can strengthen cooperation in order to ensure that activities of ML and TF in and through the Territory are minimized.

US Department of State Money Laundering assessment (INCSR)

The British Virgin Islands was deemed a Jurisdiction of Primary Concern by the US Department of State 2016 International Narcotics Control Strategy Report (INCSR).

Key Findings from the report are as follows: -

Perceived Risks:

The British Virgin Islands (BVI) is a UK overseas territory. The economy is dependent on tourism and the offshore financial sector. BVI is a well-established, sophisticated financial center offering accounting, banking, and legal services; captive insurance; company incorporation; mutual funds administration; trust formation; and shipping registration. The BVI is advertised as the world's leading offshore center with more offshore companies than any other country. The Financial Services Commission (FSC) is the sole supervisory authority responsible for the licensing and supervision of financial institutions under the relevant statutes. The FSC's most recent statistical bulletin was published in September 2015 and notes there are 475,309 active companies. Of these companies, 123 are licensed fiduciary companies authorized to conduct company management and trust services. There are six commercially licensed banks, one private bank, and 2,037 registered mutual funds, which include public, private, professional, incubator, and approved funds. As of September 2015, the banking sector has assets valued at $2.4 billion.

The BVI has zero-rated corporation tax, with no wealth, capital gains, or estate tax for offshore entities. Exploitation of its offshore financial services, the unique share structure that does not require a statement of authorized capital, and the lack of mandatory filing of ownership information pose significant money laundering risks. The BVI is a favored destination for registering shell companies that can be established for little money in a short amount of time. There are reports that a substantial percentage of BVI's offshore business comes from China.

Tourism accounts for 45 percent of the economy and employs the majority of the workforce; however, financial services contribute over half of government revenues. The BVI's proximity to the U.S. Virgin Islands and the use of the U.S. dollar for its currency pose additional risk factors for money laundering. The BVI, similar to other jurisdictions in the Eastern Caribbean, is a major target for drug traffickers, who use the area as a gateway to the United States. BVI authorities work with regional and U.S. law enforcement agencies to help mitigate the threats.

Do FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS engage in currency transactions related to international narcotics trafficking that include significant amounts of US currency; currency derived from illegal sales in the U.S.; or illegal drug sales that otherwise significantly affect the U.S.: NO

BVI is a member of the Caribbean Financial Action Task Force (CFATF), a FATF-style regional body.

Enforcement and implementation issues and comments:

BVI uses suspicious activity reports (SARs) rather than suspicious transaction reports (STRs). SARs, in general, relate to suspicious activities by a broad range of entities, rather than suspicious financial transactions. Therefore, the cited 234 reports encompass all types of suspicious activities, including those of a financial nature.

From January through September 2015, the BVI Enforcement Committee reviewed 51 enforcement cases, resulting in seven administrative penalties, five license revocations, and four warning letters.

There is collaboration between BVI law enforcement and regional as well as U.S. law enforcement agencies, resulting in several successful operations targeting drug smuggling and drug dealing. There have been 25 money laundering related prosecutions and 15 convictions since 2008.

The BVI is a UK Caribbean overseas territory and cannot sign or ratify international conventions in its own right. Rather, the UK is responsible for the BVI's international affairs and may arrange for the ratification of any convention to be extended to the BVI. The 1988 UN Drug Convention was extended to the BVI in 1995. The UN Convention against Corruption was extended to the BVI in 2006. The International Convention for the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism and the UN Convention against Transnational Organized Crime were extended to the BVI in 2012.

In 2013, the Government of the United Kingdom announced plans for the UK and its overseas territories and crown dependencies to establish mandatory registers of beneficial ownership. The BVI has implemented a register which would allow BVI competent authorities direct and immediate ownership information; however, this registry is not publicly available. The Government of the BVI should work toward the goal of making information on beneficial ownership of offshore entities available for legitimate requests by international law enforcement and, eventually, to the public.

Current Weaknesses in Government Legislation (2013 INCRS Comparative Tables):

According to the US State Department, the British Virgin Islands conforms with regard to all government legislation required to combat money laundering

Section 3 - Economy

The economy, one of the most stable and prosperous in the Caribbean, is highly dependent on tourism generating an estimated 45% of the national income. More than 934,000 tourists, mainly from the US, visited the islands in 2008. In the mid-1980s, the government began offering offshore registration to companies wishing to incorporate in the islands, and incorporation fees now generate substantial revenues. Roughly 400,000 companies were on the offshore registry by yearend 2000. The adoption of a comprehensive insurance law in late 1994, which provides a blanket of confidentiality with regulated statutory gateways for investigation of criminal offenses, made the British Virgin Islands even more attractive to international business. Livestock raising is the most important agricultural activity; poor soils limit the islands' ability to meet domestic food requirements. Because of traditionally close links with the US Virgin Islands, the British Virgin Islands has used the US dollar as its currency since 1959.
